IN answer to what he considered the I hardest bout of his career, George Kononaron, light heavyweight chambion of the world, replied that about the liveliest bout he ever had wan in El Paso one year ago.

'I had gone down to the Y. M. C. A. symnanium for a bath," states Kotsonaron, 'mad while there wan called before the Fewree class being taught by director Holm. I think Mr. Holm called the attention of the boys to the muscle I had developed by wrestling. At any rate, I was asked to demonstrate certain holds, which I did. after which we all went into the pool for a swim.

HEYDLER ELECTION . MOVE TO ABOLISH ONE NOTABLE EVENT GAMBLING ON GAMES

ONE NOTABLE EVENT

New York, Dec. 12.—The annual meeting of the National learne here ended with but little of importance done except the election of John A. Heydler to the presidency.

Action on several proposed changes in baseball was held in absevance until after the suggested conference with the American league.

In making this announcement the newly elected executive of the senior league said that there had been general discussion regarding the non-recall of waivers, limitation of player rosters; 1919 schedules; number of games and other details, but that the league declined to go on record in any of these matters until after the joint conference. Therefore he cald, action had been postponed until a special meeting or that to be held in Pebruary.

Treceding the final session there was a short conference of the newly elected four man board of directors. Some financial matters and reports were passed upon and three was a discretion for press wire facilities during the session of 1919.
